Lex Templeton

Alexa Templeton is the UK-based amigurumi designer behind Lex in Stitches. Since she started designing patterns in 2018, Lex's work has been featured in multiple publications, including Simply Crochet Magazine, Zoomigurumi, and other collaborative amigurumi books. Lex's main inspiration comes from her daughters and British wildlife. Her favorite animals to crochet and knit are badgers, which oddly do not feature in this book. She lives on the UK's south coast with her family and black labrador called Onyx. When not crocheting, she works as a vascular surgeon and drinks far too much coffee.

FLOWER KNITTING

100 Cute Flower and Fruit Motifs

A book on knitting flower and fruit motifs. This book categorizes motifs into five types: Small flowers, large flowers, fruits, borders, and single-color patterns. It provides 100 swatches and knit patterns. There are procedural explanations for many basic knitting methods, the author's original methods, and even distinctive techniques - such as puff stitching. All are accompanied by step-by-step photographs. Sample items range from cardigans and shawls to bags and coasters. The book offers advice on both making knitting as easy as possible and on color coordination.

Lesley Domier

Lesley has always found joy and fulfillment in bringing her creative ideas to life. She completed her first quilt at just 14 years old and has been quilting and sewing ever since.

For over two decades, her work has been featured in magazines worldwide, and her first book, Charmed, I'm Sure, was met with great enthusiasm. Most recently, she designed her first fabric collection, #strawberrydreams, featuring twenty delightful strawberry-themed prints many of which are showcased in the projects throughout Sew Much Love.

You can find Lesley on Instagram at @berry_birdy, explore her patterns on berrybirdy.com, and watch her step-by-step tutorials on YouTube. She cherishes the global connections she has made within the quilting community, sharing her passion for sewing and creativity through social media. When she's not in her sewing room, Lesley enjoys spending time with her children and grandchildren, working on woodworking projects, decorating her home, or planning her next travel adventure.

MEADOW TABLE RUNNER

This lovely table runner reflects springtime meadows and deep green patterns. Scoop up your green-toned fabrics and gorgeous little scraps to create this version of your own!

Finished Measurements
18 1/2" x 43 1/2" (50 x 110cm)

Materials Needed

1 1/2" x 1/2" (3.8cm) squares: 100 pieces
1/4" (0.6cm) squares: 100 pieces
1/4" (0.6cm) squares: 100 pieces
1/4" (0.6cm) squares: 100 pieces

CUTTING

1. Lay out the white (low volume) squares and arrange them in a 10x10 grid. Cut 100 - 1/4" (0.6cm) squares from the white fabric. You will need to make 100 half-square triangles. Reversibly select from the low volume and scrappy squares.

2. Lay out the white (low volume) squares and arrange them in a 10x10 grid. Cut 100 - 1/4" (0.6cm) squares from the white fabric. You will need to make 100 half-square triangles. Reversibly select from the low volume and scrappy squares.

3. Lay out the white (low volume) squares and arrange them in a 10x10 grid. Cut 100 - 1/4" (0.6cm) squares from the white fabric. You will need to make 100 half-square triangles. Reversibly select from the low volume and scrappy squares.

4. Following the placing diagram (PT), gather the pieces randomly and sew them together using a 1/4" (0.6cm) seam.

5. This may seem to be a lot of work to keep track of, but it's worth it to keep track of the pieces you have used.

6. Sew each row together once it has been sewn. Then press the squares.

7. Continue to sew the rows together.

Tip for Sewing Result:
• If you press your squares after each row is sewn, this will help you keep track of any pieces that are needed before they are sewn.
• If you press your squares after each row is sewn, this will help you keep track of any pieces that are needed before they are sewn.
• To be sure you have your squares, but don't worry if they are not all there.

8. Once the top is complete, press with building and press and quilt as desired.

9. To sew on the runner, use the backing kit square and the 1/4" (0.6cm) squares and sew them together along the edge.

10. Fold the fabric to cover the upper half and half of the runner. This will make a 1/2" (0.6cm) wide strip. Press the strip with the iron.

11. Take your yellow front and top it on the wrong side of the runner. Sew the yellow fabric to the runner. This will make a 1/2" (0.6cm) wide strip. Press the strip with the iron.

12. Sew the yellow fabric to the runner. This will make a 1/2" (0.6cm) wide strip. Press the strip with the iron.

13. Fold the runner in half lengthwise with wrong sides together.

14. Sew the runner in half lengthwise with wrong sides together.

15. Fold the runner in half lengthwise with wrong sides together.

16. Sew the runner in half lengthwise with wrong sides together.

17. Fold the runner in half lengthwise with wrong sides together.

18. Sew the runner in half lengthwise with wrong sides together.

19. Fold the runner in half lengthwise with wrong sides together.

20. Sew the runner in half lengthwise with wrong sides together.

Ariane Lauzon

She is the creator and maker behind the beloved brand Mes Petites Lunes. A lifetime creative, she discovered her passion for doll making eight years ago when she became a mother. Throughout her designs, she has imagined and built a world where poetry, textile art, and the magic of childhood intertwine.

With a devoted following of over 115,000 on Instagram (@mespetiteslunesdolls), Ariane has cultivated a vivid and engaged community eager to accompany her on her artistic journey and draw inspiration from her creations. You can discover her work and explore her sewing patterns on her website at mespetiteslunes.com. She also maintains an active presence on TikTok, Pinterest and on her Facebook group, consistently engaging with her audience to spread creativity and encourage craftsmanship worldwide. This marks her second book publication.

Ariane lives in Canada with her husband and their three children, in a charming home surrounded by nature, beautiful fabrics and the vibrant chaos of creativity and family.

COUNTRYSIDE CROSS STITCH

Beautiful Country Houses with Animals, Plants, Flowers, People, Kitchen, Hobbies and more..

Imagine a beautiful country house with animals, plants and flowers intertwined with nature. A house where delicious cookies are baked in the kitchen, beautiful flowers bloom in the garden, you can do all your favourite hobbies and stitch your cross-stitch project on the veranda. Here is world that Tania Santarelli presents in her second book for you. She designed cross-stitch patterns that will add joy to your life: farm life, garden, flowers, people, kitchen, animals, handicrafts, sewing, embroidery, patchwork, hobbies... The cross-stitch projects within this book are designed to adorn the house once stitched or to help celebrate those special moments in life.

Tania Santarelli

Tania Santarelli, known as Lilli Violette, is a cross stitch designer. She lives in a northern town in Italy, and works from her attic among the rooftops of the city. She has been designing for the French magazine Creations Point de Croix for several years; she created Fili Senza Tempo, one of the most famous and esteemed embroidery exhibitions in Italy; her patterns are distributed in several parts of the world (USA, Japan, Russia, Europe). Her creations are inspired by everyday life, beautiful children's books, old illustrations and a fervent imagination. You can find out more about the world of Lilli Violette, as well as news and information from her social media accounts on Instagram and Facebook.

Embroidered Dresses

In her family's tailoring shop, located in an old building in the heart of the city, custom-made women's dresses are crafted, embroidered on the finest Persian fabrics. These exquisite dresses are so beautiful that they are shipped all over the world. Son works every morning of the week, but in the afternoons, she gathers aromatic herbs to prepare her delicious dishes.
